Spring 2020

Lending Update

It's been a decade since the economic recovery started and lenders felt the weight of heightened regulatory oversight. As the economy slows down, are banks positioned to thrive in a downturn? What are the impacts on commercial real estate? What regulations are keeping lenders from putting cash to work? How does the 2020 election impact lending?

NAIOP Pittsburgh's annual awards are highlighted.

Space reservation deadline is February 10. Artwork is due February 19.

Fall 2020

Hill District in Focus

With the redevelopment of the 28-acres arena site, activity is finally underway in the Lower Hill. What do the Bus Rapid Transit and Crosstown Boulevard Cap mean to development in The Hill? A look at demand, challenges, and gentrification concerns.

The 2019 NAIOP Buyer's Guide is published in the fall.

Space reservation deadline is August 7. Artwork is due August 14.

Each edition of DevelopingPittsburgh profiles a local developer, takes an in-depth look at the data for the property categories and submarkets and updates the status of the capital markets.
